

Bridging the Gap that Exist Between Minority Communities and the Field of Accounting

May 2, 2022

The Foundation for Aspiring Minority Accountants, Inc. (FAMA) aims to bridge the gap and increase representation in minority communities and the field of accounting. Our ultimate goal is to open doors of opportunity for BIPOC students in the world of accountancy as we advance the field into the 21st century.

The Foundation for Aspiring Minority Accountants, Inc. will provide mentorship to selected recent college graduates (up to five years) of African-American, Hispanic, and Asian descent who seek guidance with practical workplace solutions, career advancement and employment, and counsel in the field of accounting.
